

Device Eligibility and Deductible Schedule For Multi-Device Insurance* (part of Multi-Device Protection Pack)

12/14/2018 Update

Devices connected to the AT&T network:

The Equipment Tier list is updated regularly to include new models. Devices introduced under an Equipment Tier may be moved to a lower Tier during their lifecycle. The non-refundable deductible is based on the device in use and the equipment tier assigned on the date of loss.

If you are not certain of the model of your device, refer to your original receipt or you may be able to determine the model by following these steps (if applicable): Turn the power off. Carefully remove the battery cover and the battery. The model is typically printed on the white label located under the battery.

This list is changed from time to time. Please check this list any time your equipment changes.

AT&T Multi-Device Insurance (part of Multi-Device Protection Pack) for devices connected to the AT&T network is not available for and coverage does not apply to:

- Devices on AT&T PREPAID accounts
- Netgear Arlo Go (VML4030)

Apple Watch Series

- Watch Series 3 GPS + Cellular and 4 GPS + Cellular are eligible for AT&T Multi-Device Insurance (part of Multi-Device Protection Pack). Replacements for approved claims on this device will be new or AT&T Certified Restored and will be either the same watch and watchband combination or a watch and watchband combination of like kind and quality to the device enrolled in protection. Customized replacements will not be provided.

Devices not connected to the AT&T network (wi-fi):

Multi-Device Insurance for Non-Connected Eligible Devices are not included in the Equipment Tier list below, but are charged a non-refundable deductible at the time of a repair or replacement as set forth in the Deductible Schedule below. Eligible non-connected devices are tablets and laptops with Windows Vista, OS X, Android, iOS or newer operating systems.
